	§	_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, Willie Gillespie ("Plaintiff") complaining of Victor Solano and Greatwide Dallas Mavis, LLC (collectively referred to as "Defendants") and will respectfully show the Court the following:

I.

DISCOVERY

1. Discovery in this matter may be conducted under Level 2 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

II.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants and venue is proper in this County pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 15.002(a)(3) because Greatwide Dallas Mavis, LLC maintains a principal office in this County.

III.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is a resident of Mississippi.

4. Defendant Victor Solano is a resident of Indiana and can be served through personal delivery at his principal residence located at 6884 Scotia Ct., Indianapolis, Indiana 46254 or wherever he may be found. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over Defendant Solano because Plaintiff's claims against Solano arise out of Solano's purposeful contacts with Texas.

5. Defendant Greatwide Dallas Mavis, LLC ("Greatwide") is a Delaware limited liability company with a principal office in Concord, North Carolina. This Defendant may be served through its registered agent C T Corporation System at 1999 Bryan Street, Suite 900 Dallas, Texas 75201. Greatwide does substantial business in the state of Texas and maintains a principal office in Dallas County, Texas. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over Defendant Greatwide because Plaintiff's claims against Greatwide arise out of Greatwide's purposeful contacts with Texas.

IV.

FACTS

6. On or about March 28, 2017, Plaintiff was entering the interstate highway I-30 heading West near Texarkana. Shortly after entering I-30, Plaintiff's vehicle was struck violently from behind by Defendant Victor Solano, who was driving Defendant Greatwide's commercial tractor trailer. After reviewing the scene of the incident, Texas police issued Defendant Victor Solano a citation for failure to control speed under Texas Transportation Code § 545.351. As a result of the incident, Plaintiff suffered significant injuries to his neck, back, shoulders, head and knees. At all relevant times, Defendant Victor Solano was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Greatwide in furtherance of a mission for Defendant Greatwide's benefit.

V.

CAUSES OF ACTION

A. Negligence and Gross Negligence against all Defendants

7. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.
8. Plaintiff sustained injuries because of Defendants' negligence and gross negligence when, upon information and belief, Defendants:
 - Failed to maintain a proper speed;
 - Failed to exercise caution;
 - Failed to operate the tractor trailer safely;
 - Failed to keep a proper lookout;
 - Failed to train their driver; and
 - Other acts deemed negligent and grossly negligent.
9. Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiff consistent with the foregoing and breached each of the foregoing duties. These breaches were both the cause in fact and the proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries. As a result, Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages against Defendants to make him whole. Additionally, Defendant Greatwide is also liable for its own grossly negligent hiring, training, retention, entrustment, supervision, and monitoring as discussed below. These actions were done with a reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe bodily injury and, as such, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages against both Defendants.

B. Plaintiff claims Respondeat Superior against Greatwide

10. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

11. At the time of the incident in question, and immediately prior thereto, Defendant Victor Solano was acting within the course and scope of his employment for Defendant Greatwide. Victor Solano was engaged in the furtherance of Defendant Greatwide's business and was on a mission for its benefit.

12. At the time of the incident in question, and immediately prior thereto, Defendant Victor Solano was engaged in accomplishing a task for which he was employed.

13. Accordingly, Plaintiff invokes the doctrine of respondeat superior against Defendant Greatwide.

C. Plaintiff's claims of Agency against Greatwide

14. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

15. At and during the time of the acts and omissions complained of herein, any acts and omissions of any such agent, representative, or employee of Defendant Greatwide—specifically Defendant Victor Solano—occurred within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of such person on behalf of Defendant Greatwide.

16. Therefore, Defendant Greatwide is liable to Plaintiff for the acts and omissions of any such agent representative, or employee complained of herein by virtue of such agency relationship.

D. Plaintiff's claims of Negligent Training against Greatwide

17. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above.

18. Plaintiff sustained injuries as a result of Defendant's negligent training because of Defendant's:

- Failure to explain and demonstrate its safety policies and procedures to Victor Solano;
- Failure to provide the necessary training to Victor Solano regarding driving the vehicle, vehicle safety, safety classes, how to properly and safely drive the vehicle, the proper method to maintain a vehicle, the proper way and necessity of keeping the vehicle clean and in proper working order, and in all matters regarding the proper and safe operation of a vehicle and the maintenance of vehicles in various situations;
- Failure to train its drivers in all aspects of driver safety;
- Failure to train its employees, including Victor Solano, regarding safe and proper operation of a vehicle such as a person and company of ordinary care would have done in the same or similar circumstance; and
- Failure to provide and require regular follow-up driver education training.

19. Defendant Greatwide owed a duty consistent with the foregoing and breached each of the foregoing duties. These breaches were both the cause in fact and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

20. As a result of Defendant Greatwide's negligent and grossly negligent training, Plaintiff suffered severe physical injury. Plaintiff is entitled to recover for his injury. Further, Defendant Greatwide's actions and inactions were done with a reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe bodily injury. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages.

E. Plaintiff's claims of Negligent Hiring against Greatwide

21. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

22. Plaintiff sustained his injuries as a direct result of Defendant Greatwide's negligent and grossly negligent hiring because, upon information and belief, Defendant:

- Failed to conduct a reasonable and adequate interview of its driver as a potential employee;
- Failed to properly follow up on information not provided by its driver in the interview process;
- Failed to conduct a proper employment and background check;

- Failed to adequately investigate its driver's prior training, employment, criminal record, and past;
- Failed to perform the required screening, testing, and physical of its driver;
- Failed to adopt proper policies and procedures regarding the interview of a potential employee who will be driving a tractor trailer on interstate highways through Texas;
- Such other and further acts of negligence as may be shown in the trial of this case as discovery progresses.

23. Defendant Greatwide owed a duty to Plaintiff consistent with the foregoing and breached each of those duties. These breaches were the cause in fact and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

24. As a result of Defendant Greatwide's negligent and grossly negligent hiring, Plaintiff suffered severe physical injury. Plaintiff is entitled to recover for his injuries.

25. Further, because Defendant Greatwide's actions and/or inactions were done with reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe injury, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages as well.

F. Plaintiff's claims of Negligent Supervision, Retention, and Monitoring against Greatwide

26. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

27. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct result of Defendant Greatwide's negligent and grossly negligent supervision, retention, and monitoring because, upon information and belief, Defendant:

- Failed to monitor Mr. Solano to make sure he was complying with policies and procedures;
- Failed to implement proper policies and procedures for their employees, including Mr. Solano, regarding driver safety and vehicle safety;

- Failed to follow up with Mr. Solano to ensure that he read, understood, and was familiar with the company safety policies and procedures;
- Failed to adequately supervise Mr. Solano to ensure that he was keeping his vehicle properly maintained; and
- Such other acts of negligence and gross negligence as may be shown in the trial of this case as discovery progresses.

28. Greatwide owed a duty to Plaintiff consistent with the foregoing and breached each of those duties. These breaches were the cause in fact and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

29. As a result of Defendant Greatwide's negligent and grossly negligent supervision, retention, and monitoring, Plaintiff suffered severe physical injury. Plaintiff is entitled to recover for his injuries.

30. Further, because Defendant Greatwide's actions and/or inactions were done with reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe injury, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages as well.

G. Plaintiff's claim for Negligent Entrustment against Defendant Greatwide

31. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

32. Plaintiff sustained his injuries as a direct result of Defendant's negligent entrustment because, upon information and belief, Defendant:

- Provided a vehicle and/or authority to Mr. Solano, who was not properly trained, did not have the proper education, background, training, or experience to safely operate the vehicle, and who was an incompetent and/or reckless driver.

33. Greatwide owed a duty to Plaintiff consistent with the foregoing and breached each of those duties. These breaches were the cause in fact and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages for his injury. Further, because Defendant Greatwide's actions and/or inactions were done with reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe injury, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages as well.

H. Plaintiff's claim for Negligence Per Se against Defendant Victor Solano

34. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

35. Plaintiff sustained his injuries as a direct result of Defendant Victor Solano's failure to control the speed of the tractor trailer in the manner of a reasonable and prudent person under those conditions having regard for actual and potential hazards. The responding officer recognized this fact, and cited Mr. Solano accordingly. Therefore, Victor Solano was negligent per se in violation of the Texas Transportation Code § 545.351.

36. Defendant Victor Solano owed a duty to Plaintiff consistent with the foregoing and breached each of those duties. Defendant Victor Solano's breach of Texas Transportation Code § 545.351 were the cause in fact and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages for his injury.

37. Further, because Mr. Solano's actions and/or inactions were done with reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe injury, Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages as well.

I. Plaintiff's claims for Ratification against Greatwide

38. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation contained above.

39. Defendant Greatwide is responsible for the negligence and gross negligence of Defendant Victor Solano under the theory of ratification because Defendant Greatwide:

- Retained Defendant Victor Solano after he committed the underlying tortious acts;
- Knew of Defendant Victor Solano's tortious acts;

- Recognized that Defendant Victor Solano will likely continue to be negligent if he is retained;
- Recognized that Defendant Victor Solano will likely continue to be grossly negligent if he is retained;
- Failed to take adequate measures to prevent Defendant Victor Solano from committing future tortious acts; and
- Otherwise adopted, confirmed, or failed to repudiate Defendant Victor Solano's negligent and grossly negligent conduct after Defendant Greatwide gained knowledge of the conduct.

40. As a result of Defendant Victor Solano's negligent and grossly negligent conduct, which Defendant Greatwide ratified, Plaintiff suffered severe physical injury. Plaintiff is entitled to recover for his injury. Defendant Victor Solano's actions were done with a reckless disregard to a substantial risk of severe bodily injury—and Defendant Greatwide ratified Defendant Victor Solano's grossly negligent conduct. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to recover exemplary damages from both Defendant Victor Solano and Defendant Greatwide.

VI.

JURY TRIAL

41. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury on all claims and submits his jury fee herewith.

VII.

PRAYER

Plaintiff prays that this citation issue and be served upon Defendants in a form and manner prescribed by law, requiring Defendants appear and answer, and that upon final hearing, Plaintiff has judgment against Defendants in a total sum in excess of the minimum jurisdictional limits of this Court, plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interests, all costs of Court, and all such other relief to which Plaintiff show himself justly entitled. As required by

Rule 47 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff affirmatively states that he seeks damages in excess of $1,000,000 and prays for relief and judgment, as follows:

- Compensatory damages against Defendants;
- Actual damages;
- Consequential damages;
- Pain and suffering;
- Exemplary damages;
- Past and future mental anguish;
- Past and future impairment;
- Disfigurement;

- Interest on damages (pre- and post-judgment) in accordance with law;
- Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees;
- Costs of court;
- Expert witness fees;

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

UNIFORM SCHEDULING ORDER

In accordance with Rules 166, 190 and 192 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court makes the following order to control discovery and the schedule of this cause:

1. This case will be ready and is set for JURY TRIAL - CIVIL on MARCH 26, 2018 at 9:00 AM ("this Trial Setting"). Reset or continuance of this Trial Setting will not alter any deadlines established in this Order or established by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, unless otherwise provided by order. If not reached as set, the case will be carried to the next week.

2. Unless otherwise ordered, discovery in this case will be controlled by Rule 190.3 (LEVEL 2) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Except by agreement of the party, leave of court, or where expressly authorized by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, no party may obtain discovery of information subject to disclosure under Rule 194 by any other form of discovery.

3. Any objection or motion to exclude or limit expert testimony due to qualification of the expert or reliability of the opinions must be filed no later than seven (7) days after the close of the discovery period, or such objection is waived. Any motion to compel responses to discovery (other than relating to factual matters arising after the end of the discovery period) must be filed no later than seven (7) days after the close of the discovery period or such complaint is waived, except for the sanction of exclusion under Rule 193.6.

4. Any amended pleadings asserting new causes of action or affirmative defenses must be filed no later than thirty (30) days before the end of the discovery period and any other amended pleadings must be filed no later than seven (7) days after the end of the discovery period. Amended pleadings responsive to timely filed pleadings under this Order may be filed after the deadline for amended pleadings if filed within two (2) weeks after the pleading to which they respond. Except with leave of court, TRCP 166a motions must be heard no later than thirty (30) days before trial.

5. No additional parties may be joined more than five (5) months after the commencement of this case except on motion for leave showing good cause. This paragraph does not otherwise alter the requirements of Rule 38. The party joining an additional party shall serve a copy of this Order on the new party concurrently with the pleading joining that party.

6. If mediation or other alternative dispute resolution, is agreed to by the parties, then it will be conducted in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure; the Texas Government Code and the standing Dallas County Civil District Court order regarding mediation, which is available from the Dallas County ADR Coordinator.

Mediation must be conducted thirty (30) days prior to the first trial setting in this case.

The parties decision to mediate before the first trial setting in this case will not be a basis for a continuance of any trial setting.

7. Fourteen (14) days before this Trial Setting, the parties shall exchange a list of exhibits, including any demonstrative aids and affidavits, and shall exchange copies of any exhibits not previously produced in discovery; over-designation is strongly discouraged and may be sanctioned. Except for records to be offered by way of business record affidavits, each exhibit must be identified separately and not by category or group designation. Rule 193.7 applies to this designation. On or before ten (10) days before this Trial Setting, the attorneys in charge for all parties shall meet in person to confer on stipulations regarding the materials to be submitted to the Court under this paragraph and attempt to maximize agreement on such matters. By 4:00 p.m. on the Thursday before this Trial Setting, the parties shall file with the Court the materials stated in Rule 166(e)-(l), an estimate of the length of trial, designation of deposition testimony to be offered in direct examination, and any motions in limine. Failure to file such materials may result in dismissal for want of prosecution or other appropriate sanction.

8. All Daubert challenges, all witness challenges, and all dispositive motions, including Motions for Summary Judgment, shall be set and heard at least 30 days prior to this trial setting or they are waived.

Plaintiff/Plaintiff's counsel shall serve a copy of this Order on any currently named defendant(s) answering after this date.
